Sir,

I have the honour to enclose for the orders of Government amendments in duplicate both in English and Kanarese to the bye-laws of Toll-gates fees proposed by the Chamarajanagar Town Municipal Council.

A copy of the proceedings of the Council in the subject together with the objection petitions from the inhabitants of Chamarajanagar Town to the proposed amendments are herewith transmitted.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Deputy Commissioner,
Mysore District.

The original Bye laws were sanctioned in Govt 3242/ML 65-21-49, Leg dated 4th March 3 12 1921 The bye laws have been framed under Section 44(e) of the Regulation but the section empowers the Municipal Council to frame "Rules" Kindly attention is invited to the note in the docketed file ML 69-22 relating to the bye laws framed by the Davangere Municipal Council for the same purpose

2 From the petition received by him in the file it is seen that some people objected to the amendments with regard to the amendment by "that Toll shall be levied on all vehicles entering the municipal limits" for the reason entering vehicles passing through the Toll gates While there were other petitions regarding the abolition of Toll the Toll on gardies the Municipal Council have resolved that the concession claimed by the people cannot be sanctioned and regret sanction for the amendments
